Support for Conferences, Seminars, and Workshops

Dear Society members,

The Zoological Society of Israel seeks to encourage and disseminate various aspects of the zoological sciences in Israel by offering support for local conferences, seminars, symposiums, and workshops (hereafter, "conferences"). Such support is contingent upon including the Society's logo on all official conference documents.

Eligibility: Applicants must be members of the Society.

Non-members may apply only after completing their registration to The Zoological Society of Israel. Registration form is available here. The registration form, and payment details of the Society membership fee must be sent to the society's treasurer, Dr. Shay Rotics shay.rotics@gmail.com

Individual budget: Up to NIS 3,000 (depending on the number of approved applications). Note that the Society may decide not to grant any application this year in the case of no suitable application.

Funding Period: The proposed conference should take place within one year after receiving the support.

Submission guidelines: Applications should include all of the following (items a-j are limited altogether to 1 page):

- a) Conference theme
- b) Name of applicant
- c) Conference location
- d) Dates of the conference
- e) Target audience
- f) Expected number of participants
- g) Importance of the conference and its relevance to the Society's aims (as outlined on its website)
- h) Requested funds
- i) Detailed budget
- j) Additional sources of funding

The meeting/seminar/workshop program should be attached to the above materials.

Deadline for submission: Applications should be submitted via e-mail by May 1 2026 to the Chairman of the Conference Committee, Prof. Yoni Vortman (vortmanyoy@gmail.com). Decisions will be announced by June 15 2026.

Reports: A short final report must be submitted within a month after the conference, including a summary of the conference and a detailed financial report of the conference expenses. The report form is available here. The report should be submitted to the treasurer of the Society, Dr. Shay Rotics shay.rotics@gmail.com
